J. V. Pell, Esq.,

59 Victoria Street,

Toronto.

Dear Mr. Pell:

I am very glad to know that what I said to the Masons last Sunday was helpful. I realize that those who have suffered as you have done need all the comfort and help that those of us who have not yet been called to suffer in the same way can possibly give you.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Major J. Hamilton,

Serbian Mobilization Camp,

Levis, Quebec.

Dear Sir:

I am sending your letter to Miss Boulton who is Secretary of our Serbian Relief Committee with the request that she forward to you the name of the Committees on Serbian Relief throughout the Dominion.

Miss Losanitch has recently been lecturing and has had very favourable receptions both West and East.

Yours sincerely,

President.

The Hammond Typewriter Company,

New York.

Gentlemen:

Will you be kind enough to send us a copy of your latest catalogue giving the prices and designs of your new typewriters? Also, if you have a Canadian Agency may we have the address ? For the last fifteen years we have been using Hammond Machines in this Office, and we are thinking of a new machine next July, and I should like to have the latest information from your firm as to prices, etc.

Yours very truly,

President's Secretary.

D. B. Parkness, Esq.,

Box 94,

Ottawa.

Dear Mr. Parkness:

I am on so many committees that I feel that I must not add my name to any more just at present. I am sure that with the large number of names that you already have secured you have sufficient, and I do not wish to go on any committee on which I would not have some active part.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Mr. J. C. Parrison,

Mercer University,

Macon, Georgia.

Dear Sir:

I am sending your letter to the Director of our Military Instruction in the hope that he may know of some returned soldier who might be able to meet the conditions. I am afraid, however, that we shall find it difficult to secure the man that you want.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

The Harvard University Press,

Cambridge, Mass.

Gentlemen:

Will you please send a copy of "A Handbook of Northern France" by William Morris Davis to Sir Robert Falconer, President of the University of Toronto, Toronto, Canada ? I enclose order for one dollar in payment of same.

Yours sincerely,

President's Secretary.

March 5th, 1918

Dr. A. P. Hattie,

Halifax, N.S.

Dear Dr. Hattie:

This is to introduce to you Dr. Clarence M. Pincke, Secretary of the Organising Committee of the recently established Canadian National Committee for Mental Hygiene. I have told Dr. Pincke that you would be willing to give him good advice as to persons in Halifax who would be suitable members of a local committee in connection with the national committee.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

October 17th, 1917

Mrs. V. E. Henderson,

111 Admiral Road, Toronto.

Dear Mrs. Henderson:

Many thanks for your letter enclosing a cheque for the British Red Cross. I shall have much pleasure in forwarding your cheque along with those of the staff who are here. Please give my kind regards to your husband when you write.

Yours sincerely,

President.

Lieutenant E. K. Heywood,
8 Churchill Avenue,
Toronto.

Dear Lieutenant Heywood:

There was no need of your writing to me with regard to any supposed oversight on your part. I quite understood your attitude in the matter.

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear President Falconer

Many thanks for your kind Christmas greeting it is very nice to get messages out here where the three things we look forward to are the end of the war, leave, and letters. I have changed my unit and am now with the 2nd Can. Bn. Eastern Ontario Regiment and am having a very good time indeed all things considered but I certainly wish you with that next Christmas may see us all home.

yours sincerely

William Houston, Esq.,

Toronto.

Dear Mr. Houston:

There is no doubt that Sir George Adam Smith is entirely worthy of the honorary degree from the University, but I do not think that in the circumstances it would be wise to add to the report that has gone in. In the first place we do not know whether he will be here, and in the second place we did not have a special Convocation for the Archbishop of York who was here recently. It might be argued that we had shown partiality if we were to recognise the one and not the other.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
